

Artform: Kaavi Painting

Kaavi painting is a unique and traditional form of art predominantly found in Goa, Karnataka, and parts of Maharashtra. The term "Kaavi" is derived from the Konkani word for poet, reflecting the poetic and expressive nature of the art form. Originating in Goa, Kaavi art spread to coastal Karnataka, Maharashtra, and Kerala through the Saraswat Brahmin community, who migrated from Goa and adorned temples, homes, and public buildings with this intricate art.

Deeply rooted in cultural and religious traditions, Kaavi paintings are rich in symbolism, often depicting scenes from Hindu mythology, local folklore, and nature. These artworks are a testament to the rich cultural heritage of the Konkan region, celebrated for their intricate designs, vibrant colors, and profound symbolism.

Artwork: Mysore Dussehra in Kaavi Painting

In this exquisite artwork, B N Hariprasad portrays the famous Mysore Dussehra, also known as Nadahabba, celebrated with great pomp and splendor in the city of Mysore. The painting captures the essence of the festival's grandeur, cultural richness, and vibrant celebrations. At the heart of the artwork is Goddess Chamundeshwari, the central deity worshipped during Dussehra. Through the medium of Kaavi painting, Hariprasad beautifully encapsulates the magnificence of Mysore Dussehra, merging traditional art forms with contemporary celebrations.

This artwork is a stunning representation of the festival, showcasing the intricate designs and vibrant colors characteristic of Kaavi painting. Hariprasad's portrayal of Mysore Dussehra is not just a visual feast but also a cultural narrative, celebrating the heritage and traditions of Karnataka.
